

JEFF HENDERSON, SRA

Graduated with a B.A. degree from Knox College, Galesburg, Illinois in 1973

Served in the U.S. Navy from 1974 to 1984 as Naval Aviator. Retired as Captain in October 2000 with 26 years Naval Service. Served as Commanding Officer of Helicopter Squadron 75, NR MMF-174 and NR CV-67-474 (USS Kennedy).

Engaged in the appraisal profession since November 1985.

Member of the Appraisal Institute
Member of Northeast Florida Association of Realtors
Member of Northeast Florida Multiple Listing Service (MLS)
Member of Gainesville-Alachua Association of Realtors

Designated Senior Residential Appraiser (SRA) in February 1990.

State Certified Residential REA, Florida, RD451
FHA-HUD Appraiser
Approved for FNMA, FHLMC Appraisals

Completed the Society of Real Estate Appraiser's Course 101, Principles of Appraising at the University of Wisconsin in November 1985. Challenged and passed exam for Society's Course 102: Completed Society's 201, Principles of Income Property Appraising. Attended various educational seminars and courses over the last 15 years. Completed 300 hours of education since 1990.

EXPERIENCE

April 1998 – Henderson Appraisal Group - President

March 1990 to March 1998
Paul Deese & Associates
Jacksonville, Florida

Nov. 1985 to April 1990
Jim Johnston & Associates
Jacksonville, Florida